You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet and your head clear for months.

Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken. (adv)

Los Angeles, Cal.—Facing starvation in their isolated home in the Malibu mountains, eight children, ranging in ages from eighteen years to eighteen months, started on a 40-mile walk to Los Angeles in search of food and their father and mother. The father, R. W. Baller, a homesteader, came to Los Angeles some days ago to seek work, they said.

After they had walked 15 miles the older children, taking turns in carrying the youngster as well as their pet dog and cat, which they would not leave to starve, they were found by Ray Nimmo, an attorney of Los Angeles. He gave them money with which to ride to this city, where they have arrived.

GUARDS OFF FLOODS

East Side Levee and Sanitary District of Illinois.

Section Is a Municipality Chartered by the State and Has Power to Collect Taxes to Keep the Mississippi River Within Bounds.

East St. Louis.—The east side levee and sanitary district, in which the city of East St. Louis is situated, is a municipality, chartered by the state of Illinois and given power to levy and collect taxes for the purpose of providing flood protection and drainage for a 150 square mile area situated on the east side of the Mississippi river, opposite the city of St. Louis.

The area extends about 30 miles along the Mississippi river, and is bounded on the east by a chain of bluffs. Within the area is a large industrial center, and a very prolific agricultural district. The principal city in the area is East St. Louis, which has a population of 75,000. The other cities are Granite City, National City, Madison, Venice, Brooklyn, Nameoki and Cahokia.

In the past this area has had to endure many floods, resulting from an unusual combination of causes. The estimated cost of the work provided for in the present plans of the east side levee and sanitary district is $6,500,000. The east side levee and sanitary district as a municipality embrace a large territory, including the cities mentioned, but is in no way directly connected with them. The district is governed by a board of trustees elected every four years, which board appoints a chief engineer, a treasurer, a clerk and attorney.

To appreciate the significance of the measures taken by the east side levee and sanitary district to guard against future floods in the area, it is necessary to have a clear understanding of the causes of the frequent floods.

The area is comparatively low, and the Mississippi river formerly spread over a large portion of it. Through the area runs a stream called Cahokia creek. Lying northwest of the area is a 200 square mile plateau, which forms a watershed for Cahokia creek. Practically all of the water from the plateau would augment the drainage of the lower area, and the Cahokia creek would overflow its banks in the lower area. High water in the Mississippi river and the Cahokia creek would frequently occur at the same time. The Mississippi river water packing up into the channel of the Cahokia creek would meet the downward rush of the water from the plateau and the result would be a disastrous overflow. The Mississippi river inundating the area from the west and the Cahokia creek overflowing in the central part furnished enough water to almost submerge the area. These overflows occurred frequently, and caused great inconvenience to traffic and devastation of property.

Keeping the Mississippi river out of the area was simply a matter of building a levee high enough, but harnessing the Cahokia creek was a problem presenting a number of difficulties.

All Growing Children

are dependent on nourishment for growth. Their health as men and women is largely established in childhood.

If your child is languid, bloodless, tired when rising, without ambition or rosy cheeks, Scott's Emulsion is a wonderful help. It possesses nature's grandest body-building fats so delicately predigested that the blood absorbs its strength and carries it to every organ and tissue and fibre.

First it increases their appetite, then it adds flesh—strengthens the bones—makes them sturdy, active and healthy.

No alcohol or narcotic in Scott's Emulsion, just purity and strength.
